DINNER NET-WORTHY OF YOUR DOLLARS AT HOYT'S ON WACKER DRIVE

You're obsessed with Donald Trump. Not because of the money, TV show, or presidential campaign flirtation.

It's the hair. There's something about that hair. You just want to be near it.

Keep your eye out for The Donald's dome at Hoyt's, the new modern American bar/restaurant inside the renovated Hotel 71 — across from Trump Tower.

Take in huge views of Wacker Drive (and The Coiffed One's building) at one of Hoyt's' stainless steel tables topped with marble at this classy, elegant little eatery with high-backed gray booths and artsy cream-colored stucco walls.

Power lunch like The Donald with upscale Midwestern comfort food. We particularly dug the grilled mahi-mahi sandwich, and free range chicken breast with truffle potato puree.

Belly up to the square granite bar with flatscreens built into wood paneling for American craft beers, or house specialty drinks The Bee Keeper (bourbon and ginger liqueur) and River Street (cognac and port.)

Savor the firing of your latest apprentice with ice cream lollipops and chocolate pudding served in a mason jar.

Chocolate, after all, is a hair aphrodisiac. Just ask The Donald. (But don't ask him about geopolitical economic issues, especially China.)
