

MAJOR LEAGUE

JOIN THE WORLD DODGEBALL SOCIETY'S CHICAGO LEAGUE

Remember the golden rule of dodgeball: If you can dodge a wrench, you can dodge a ball.

The World Dodgeball Society's Chicago league, starting up Thursday evenings at the Wicker Park Fieldhouse, takes that message to heart.

Only instead of wrenches, they throw soft, no-sting dodgeballs along with friendly attitudes and fun post-game outings at local watering holes.

This Thursday, they kick off the season with a free open gym and afterparty at The Flat Iron, where drinks, pool, and Mortal Kombat take the place of whipping balls at strangers' heads.

Weekly co-ed games start March 15 in a casual, referee-free setting where music plays in the background and 20-member teams require a minimum of five girls each.

No experience is required, and newbies can warm up White Goodman-style during the one hour of open gym that precedes each week's hourlong match.

We won't begrudge you if you're just there to scout the other teams' "talent."

All's fair in war and wrenches.
