

SANTAS GONE WILD

GET IN THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT AT THE 12 BARS OF CHRISTMAS

Weird costumes, human picture frames, and crowds of open mouths being stuffed with cereal.

This can only mean one thing: The 12 Bars of Christmas is back.

Suit up in the freakiest holiday garb you can find for tomorrow's TBOX 2012 bar crawl, which turns Wrigleyville into a carnival-style blowout all day long.

The event starts at 8a for the "opening ceremonies" at the Cubby Bear, where sexy Santas shall stand atop the bar to douse the crowd with huge mouthfuls of cereal scooped from giant red buckets.

There's no milk provided — just Miller Lite, Jagermeister, and American Harvest Vodka drink specials. (Talk about your breakfast of champions.)

You'll then be set loose in a parade of costumed chaos to collect stamps from at least a dozen neighborhood bars to affix to your TBOX passport, making you eligible to win prizes. Like gift certificates. Or maybe just a domination for tipsiest Alderman.

There'll also be torch relays, a Monopoly-style TBOXOPOLY game, and live music from local cover band Stache at the closing ceremonies.

Better get some sleep. Mrs. Claus will be waiting with some Lucky Charms and beer in the morning.
