GHOSTBAR MAKES A SEXY RETURN TO THE PALMS

Gambling aside, there are three reasons you go to Vegas:

- 1) To party
- 2) To party with girls who live far, far away from you
- 3) To do #s 1 and 2 in a setting that will encourage said girls to take the party back to your suite.

Which is why we gratefully welcome the return of Ghostbar, recently reopened on the 55th floor of The Palms.

Long known as one of the best places in Vegas to meet women (and that's saying something), the boutique nightclub has undergone a series of facelifts and tummy tucks. The new digs include white chandeliers, a fireplace, and baroque-inspired black leather seating — kind of a way-classed-up Game of Thrones, if you can imagine that.

Which makes sense, considering all the conquering going on.

Their new specialty cocktail menu simplifies ordering with the made-for-her-lips That's What She Said (Ciroq coconut, mango juice, and ginger beer). And if you're there on a Wednesday night, it's 50% off drinks and $100 bottle service for ladies.

Floor-to-ceiling windows looking out over one of the best views in Vegas will have her impressed. Until she sees the stunning outdoor patio, at which time she moves from impressed to very impressed.

Think of this whole place as your built-in wingman.
