NEW SPRING SPOTS TO HEAR THE MM-TSS, MM-TSS

Break out the leather pants and hair gel. Chaps. Axe Body Spray.

Or, you know, whatever your clubbing gear entails, to dance away the late winter blues at Chicago's newest clubs.

Estate Ultra Lounge

Sitting on the bank opposite Goose Island, this all-inclusive evening escape serves dinner in the trophy room and terrace, plus dancing on the rooftop deck and gazebo. Pull your boat right up to the bar, Skipper, and you'll have your pick of the litter. (We recommend the terrace/gazebo combo.)
1177 N. Elston St., River West (312-582-4777)

Studio Paris

Step into the loft of a Parisian photographer, where black and white photos hang alongside exposed metal beams. This celebrity hideout on the second floor of Paris Club lets you line bottles of Champagne at the bar or sip cocktails under a retractable roof that open up to the skyline.
59 W. Hubbard St., River North (312-595-0800)

Bevy

Looking for long lines, pushy bouncers, and servers in dresses that barely cover their assets? Welcome home. Tzar Ultra Lounge has an updated look, including the cool club essential: bottles illuminated by light boxes. Wood tables and leather booths break up the crowd of stumbling singles and too-drunk-to-do-it dancers.
215 W. Ontario St., River North (312-255-8927)
